

NEW Bluegrass Event!

Join us for a fun night of bluegrass music at Duck Foot Brewing!
Monday, April 10
6:30-9 pm

The San Diego Bluegrass Society is excited to announce a new evening bluegrass jam and open mic at Duck Foot Brewing on Monday, April 10, 2023 from 6:30 to 9p.m.

Acoustic musicians and listeners alike are invited to join the event. There's jamming, lots of outdoor space, and parking, so come out and practice your best licks with other pickers. It's always fun.

Or put together a group in the parking lot and sign up for a 30 minute time slot to perform at the open mic inside*. If you have a band and haven't played at one of our events lately, this is a great chance to help celebrate our new monthly location, support SDBS, and have your band heard. Please sign up - let's make this a festive event. Duck Foot is kindly providing the sound system and indoor seating! Don't miss it.

Duck Foot Brewing has arranged for Duck Foot's resident food truck by Chef Emre to provide delicious eats (chefemfood.com), and of course Duck Foot has a wonderful range of beverages that we know you'll enjoy (duckfootbeer.com).

If you've been to the Sunday afternoon jams at Duck Foot Brewing, then you already know how to get there, but if not, it's located just north of the pyramid building in the Miramar area. Duck Foot Brewing is at 8920 Kenamar Dr. #210, San Diego, CA 92121

THIS IS A FREE EVENT, but we also hope you'll consider joining the San Diego Bluegrass Society and helping to support bluegrass and old-time music in the San Diego area. Membership is only $25 a year for the entire family and brings you the SDBS email newsletter the Tune Up so you'll know about all the upcoming bluegrass events.

After many years of meeting twice a month on Tuesday nights, we're looking at Monday nights events for several of our future events. Stay tuned (up).

Please note that we welcome all acoustic musicians with a bluegrass or old-time music focus.
